DISTRICT TYPOS OUT OF THE RACE

showing up the boys from the "Show Me State." Instead of landing the mark, Indianapolis caught a tartar, and went down for the count, 19 to 6, outclassed in every department, and putting up a wretched exhibition.

Perry started in to do the twirling for Indianapolis, but he only lasted one inning and a half, when Dr. Cook came to the rescue. The latter was shoved in at third, as the Indianapolis manager, who sported a vest of lurid hue, wanted Ruth to fling the pill. It would be putting it mildly to say that Ruth was ruthlessly handled. What the Missouri crowd did to him was a crime His stuff was pled in every frame. At that Ruth might have made a better showing had the men behind him played good ball. The error column shows ten black marks, and, believe me, there were a lot (187, cleening rationals, or sold in the color of the men behind him played good (1887, for 16 games; wheeling, 1887, for 16 games; pitched 10 innings without a hit in 1884. of miscues the writer overlooked.

For five innings Hanley worked on the mound for St. Louis, and allowed four hits and two runs. He then retired in favor of Moll, as St. Louis figured on using Hanley against Chicago to-day. Moll does not pretend to be much of a pitcher, but he was able to take things easy, as his team mates piled up runs at an average of two an inning.

Catcher Walden put up a great game for the winners, while the base-running of McCann and Cooke, for the losers,
